What images are used to describe the perfected kingdom?

How do they build on previous passages in the Bible?

- New Creation (v1)
 - v1 echoes the first verse of the Bible. Having “created the heavens and the earth” (Gen 1:1). God is determined to restore them after everything has been spoilt by the Fall (as prophesied in Isaiah 65:17). The sea symbolises the forces of chaos and evil, which will be banished from the new creation.
- New Jerusalem (v2)
 - Jerusalem symbolises the kingdom of God, where he is worshipped and justice reigns. Jerusalem enjoyed a brief golden age at the time of Solomon, when the temple was built, but it was soon corrupted by the people’s sin and destroyed. The prophets pointed forward to the restoration of Jerusalem in the future (Is 40:1-2; 52:1-3; Lk 2:38).
- Bride
 - The Old Testament likens the relationship between God and his people to a marriage (e.g. Hosea 1-3). This marriage will be perfected in the new creation. Eden had been God’s ‘dwelling place’ (v3). The tabernacle and the temple were partial restorations of that blessing, but access to them was severely limited. But in the future Christ’s bride will enjoy unrestricted intimacy with him. They will enjoy the complete fulfilment of God’s covenant promise. ‘They shall be my people and I will be their God’ (v36, 7; Gen 17:7-8; Ex 6:7)

What will life be like in the perfected kingdom?

Much will already have been said in the previous discussion. Key points include:

- It is a physical place. We will not be disembodied souls!
- Its focus is a perfectly restored relationship with God (e.g. Ps42:1) and ‘those who are victorious’ (v7), because they persevere in following Christ.
- The ungodly are excluded (v8)

 - There is no need for one, as God is everywhere
- A new Eden (22:1-2)
 - As in Eden, there is a river flowing through it and the tree of life
- ‘The throne of the lamb’
 - God’s people reign with Christ (22:5) God’s creation purposes for humanity are fully restored (Gen 1:28)
- Perfect blessing
