

II. Managing Behaviour Worksheet

Key points from the Video

Managing behaviour is good for the whole group. It's important for safety, for attentiveness to Bible talks and for the leaders' well-being!

Principles for Good Behaviour

- You're in charge
- It's a team sport
- Set the tone from the start
- Relationships are crucial

Tools to Manage Misbehaviour

- Reinforce the positives
- Ignore the negatives
- Instructive body language
- The hard stare
- Proportionate sanctions
(e.g. separating children, a time out, bring in the boss, talking to parents, temporary exclusion)

Have a go yourself

Principles for Good Behaviour

Consider how effectively you are acting on each one.

Tools to Manage Misbehaviour

Which of these tools could you be making more use of?
Are there any that you over-rely on?

You're in charge

Reinforce the positives

It's a team sport

Ignore the negatives

Set the tone from the start

Instructive body language

Relationships are crucial

The hard stare

Proportionate sanctions: What sanctions do you use as a team? Are they applied consistently? Are there any that should be added / ended?